

Can Christmas be merry and ethical?

A Low Carbon Christmas

SPEAKERS

- James Collins, allthingsgreen.net
Discussing the issue of consumption and consumerism at Christmas
- Joanna Yarrow, founder of sustainability consultancy Beyond Green and green lifestyles expert for ITV's This Morning
Exploring practical solutions
- Jasmine Fish, Professional Jeweller
Recycled Christmas decorations workshop

PLUS

- Local/Fair Trade Gifts (Nigel's Eco Store)
- Local Festive Food & Drinks (Sussex & the City/Prodigal Foods)
- Fun Seasonal Treats and Prizes

Greenspeak invite everyone to attend with their own low-carbon Christmas ideas to share.

St Peter's Church Hall

York Place (Old Steine),

BRIGHTON £ donation

Monday
4th Dec
7pm

Greenspeak is a monthly ethical talk presented in a sociable, non-smoking environment. Food and drinks are available.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

07891 571739

www.greenspeak-brighton.org.uk

FUTURE EVENTS

January 9th – The Future of Education
@ The Terraces Bar & Grill

Expert speakers searching for solutions to the big issues

“Green Speak”

Organised in association with the Brighton & Hove Green Party
www.brightonandhovegreenparty.org.uk